

Alix Peslerbe

Senior Clinical Research Associate

EXPERIENCE:

- International CRO, since February 2011, Cardiac Electrophysiology, medical devices, responsible of 1 French site.
- International CRO, since 2010, Orthopaedics, medical devices, responsible of Start-up Activities (EC/CA/CNOM/CNIL).
- International CRO, since 2009, Cardiology, medical devices, responsible of 4 French sites
- International CRO, since 2007 to March 2011, medical device in various therapeutic areas for phase II to IV studies.
- Pharmaceutical Company, since 2008 to January 2011, interviewer of patients in international phase III study in aneurismal subarachnoid haemorrhage.
- International CRO, since May 2009 to Feb 2010, Oncology.
- International CRO, since 2006 to 2007, International phase III study in Oncology (NSCLC).
- French CRO, since 2005 to 2009: National phase IV studies in gastroenterology (RGO), Diabetology and Pneumology (asthma).
- Pharmaceutical Company, since 2005 to 2008 International phases I /II studies in Rheumatology.

AREAS OF EXPERTISE:

Therapeutic area:

- Gynaecology
- Cardiology
- Endocrinology
- Rheumatology
- Gastroenterology
- Diabetology
- Pneumology (asthma)

Disciplines:

- AFSSAPS and EC submission
- Site management according to ICH guidelines, local regulations, as well as FDA regulations (state and local laws), GCPs and SOPs. Site management activities include all in house and on-site monitoring for all visit types.
- Performing all other site monitoring activities (investigative site file reconciliation, Serious Adverse Event (SAE) reporting, study logistic and material).

EDUCATION:

- 2001: Third cycle diploma DESS Clinical Trials and Marketing, Pharmacy school, Poitiers, France
- 2000: Master's degree of Cell biology, Physiology and Pharmacology, Poitiers, France